

It's "berry" important to wash your hands!

While shopping at the market, be sure to wash your hands for at least 20 seconds with soap and water after touching your face mask, before and after eating, and after touching shared items like tokens and point of sale devices.